

"Our Soul Is for the Benefit of Mankind"

Background

- The Faculty of Medicine, Prince of Songkla University was established on September 11, 1968.
- The PSU Faculty of Medicine is the largest medical school and referral hospital in Southern Thailand.

Songklanagarind Hospital

- Began providing services on February 22, 1982
- Has a capacity of 871 beds
- Is a teaching institution for medical, nursing, and public health students
- Offers services via several specialized centers, especially for patients in Southern Thailand
- Provides teaching services and materials as well as opportunities for research

Programs

Bachelor's

Doctor of Medicine - M.D.
B.Sc. in Physical Therapy
B.Sc. in Radiological Therapy

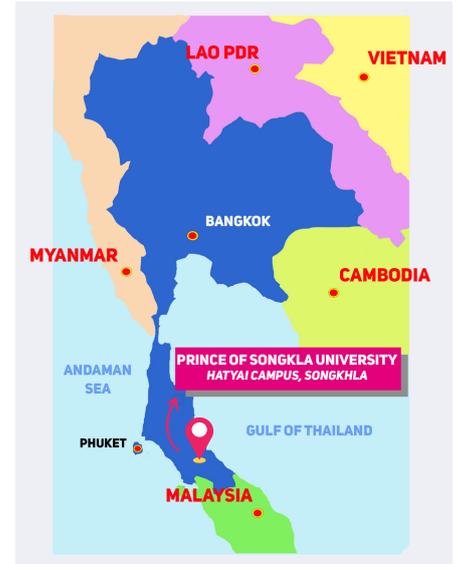

Master's

M.Sc. in Biomedical Engineering
M.Sc. in Biomedical Sciences
M.Sc. in Epidemiology (International)
M.Sc. in Health Sciences and Clinical Research
M.Sc. in Occupational Medicine

Ph.D.

Ph.D. in Biomedical Engineering
Ph.D. in Biomedical Sciences
Ph.D. in Epidemiology (International)
Ph.D. in Health Sciences and Clinical Research

 English-taught

1 HOSPITAL

Songklanagarind Hospital

11 EXCELLENCE CENTERS

871 BEDS

3,600 INPATIENTS
per month

93,000 OUTPATIENTS
per month

1,345 STUDENTS
Undergraduate & Postgraduate

5,714 PERSONNEL
Instructors, physicians, nurses, supporting staff

CONTACT

 <https://medinfo.psu.ac.th/>

 inter@medicine.psu.ac.th

 prmedpsu

 +66 74 45 1169

NOVEMBER 2020